TAXI MURDER TRIAL ON

Jury Obtained for Garvey in Two and a Half Hours.

JEWELLER ON THE STAND

Prosecutor Promises Three Witnesses to Say the Prisoner Shot Clerk.

Martin W. Garvey, the young man with the dark "popping eyes," whose arrest was brought about by a pretty young Normal school girl, who told the police what she overheard at a dance in Flushing, went on trial yesterday before Justice Marcus and a jury in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court for murder in the first degree. The trial moved with marked rapidity, the jury being obtained in two hours and a half, the prosecution presenting its case and three witnesses being examined before adjournment for the day.

Garvey is the alleged slayer of Adolph Stern, a clerk in the jewelry store of Jacob Jacoby, Sixth avenue and 13th street. He is also the alleged thief who smashed the window of the jewelry store when it was filled with customers at 9:30 o'clock on the evening of July 22 and extracted a tray full of rings valued at $4,000, shot Stern to effect his escape, leaped into a "mysterious red taxi" and disappeared in a cloud of dust beyond West 13th street and into Seven avenue.

Charles C. Nott, Jr., Assistant District Attorney, outlined the case. He described the brilliantly lighted show window of the store as it was on the night of the killing and robbery and likened it to a brilliant stage which illuminates the face of the actors so that the audience sitting beyond darkness can at its ease distinguish the facial expressions of the players. Mr. Nott told the jury that he would produce three witnesses who stood in Sixth avenue outside the glories from the window where they could easily see the face of the man who shot Adolph Stern. Two of these, a watchman named McKeegan and a man named Peterson, would be said, positively identify Martin Garvey as the man who reached in through the broken window, extracted the jewelry tray and shot the clerk in cold blood.

Another witness, a private detective, who had loitered near the Jacoby store on the right of the crime, waiting for a companion, would be said, identify the face of Garvey as the same face that peered out of the window of a red taxicab as it dashed through 13th street. This witness would also testify that the man in the taxicab held a shining revolver in his hand.

Another witness, a window dresser in a neighboring store, would testify that Garvey was one of three men who drove up in the red taxi and loitered in front of the jewelry store for a few minutes. Before Garvey's arrest, this witness, without having seen Garvey's photograph, entered a saloon on the lower West Side frequented by Garvey and his companions and picked Garvey out for the detectives from a dozen others.

James J. Keating, who was indicted for murder last week, was identified by the private detective, Mr. Nott said, as the man who kept running the taxi back and forth in 13th street, near Sixth avenue, before the killing. The third man implicated is missing.

Mr. Jacoby was the first important witness. He said he was in the optical room in the rear of the store when he heard the crash of breaking glass. He ran quickly to the door, preceded by his nephew, Mr. Stern. When he reached the sidewalk he saw a man in dark clothing and a black hat raise his hand toward Stern. Then there was a flash and a report, and Stern, rolling around, fell on the sidewalk a few feet from the door. Then the man who was standing about nine feet away in the direction of the 13th street corner, jumped into a taxicab. Stern, the witness said, died before he was brought into the store.

Garvey is being defended by Francis L. Wellman, assisted by his son, Rodier Wellman, and Forbes J. Hennessy, who were assigned by the court. Walter S. Kennedy is also associated with the defense. James L. Millard, of No. 16 West 10th street, is foreman of the jury. The trial will be resumed to-day.

HOTEL KEEPER TO PRISON

Also Fined for Conducting Disorderly House.

Victor Lubitz, proprietor of the Union Hotel, Third avenue and 13th street, was fined $100 and sent to prison for thirty days by Justice Parker, Fleming and Zeller in Special Sessions yesterday for keeping a disorderly house. The complaining witnesses were members of the Gramercy Neighborhood Association, of which Patrick F. McNamee, former President of the Board of Aldermen, is president. James E. Smith, Assistant District Attorney, prosecuted.

Evidence against Lubitz was obtained on May 8 by Detectives Russ and Cronin, of Inspector Daly's staff. Lubitz was arrested and on October 15 he disappeared, forfeiting his bond of $2,000. A few weeks later he reappeared and was again placed under arrest.

Previous to Lubitz's arrest Charles Green, a clerk in the Union Hotel, was arrested for keeping a disorderly house. He was acquitted in Special Sessions by Justices Deuel and O'Rourke. The decision so angered the members of the Gramercy Neighborhood Association, which appeared as complaining witness against Green, that Mr. McNamee declared that he would carry the case to the Court of Appeals. At the same time the association had a complaint against Victor Lubitz.

TRIPOLI PICTURES WITHDRAWN

General Film Company Acts on Objections of Italians.

All moving picture films owned by the General Film Company, of No. 20 Fifth Avenue, entitled "War" and purporting to represent a phase in the Italian drama in bases in Tripoli have been withdrawn from circulation by J. Kennedy, president of the company. The reason for his action has not only on the features of the pictures which have proved objectionable, but also on his desire to conform to the practice of not showing pictures which might offend persons of any particular nationality or religious denomination.

Representatives of the company through whom the pictures have been directed not to show them pictures to be used again, and the only films not actually in the company's hands at present are those in transit in the possession of express companies.

SAVED 1,000 DIME TIPS

Now the Thrifty Waitress Has Many Proposals of Marriage.

Denver, Dec. 18.—Deluged with letters and postal cards, and with Christmas gifts coming in goodly numbers, Miss Ivy Cole, a waitress in a local eatery, who saved up a thousand dimes received in tips within one year to buy a fur coat, is amazed at the attention her frugality has attracted.

She has received letters and postal cards from many parts of the country, and proposals of marriage, from East, West, North and South. Miss Cole began saving all of the dime tips she received a year ago last Thanksgiving Day. One day before Thanksgiving Day of the present year she had saved exactly $100, or 1,000 dimes.

CHANGES IN U. S. EXPRESS CO.

Edward T. Platt has been elected vice-president and general manager of the United States Express Company, and his place as Director has been filled by the election of C. D. Martin. Chauncey H. Green, who has heretofore been vice-president and general manager, will continue as vice-president.
